To: Editor-in-Chief of Hasanuddin Law Review

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the authors, we are pleased to submit our original research article titled, "Legal Mechanisms for Promoting Minority Rights: Kosovo and Balkan Context," for consideration for publication in the "Hasanuddin Law Review". This research was conducted by Professor Avni H. Alidemaj, the first author, and me, Professor Alban Maliqi, as the second corresponding author.

Our research article critically examines legal frameworks that influence minority rights within Kosovo and the broader Balkan region. By exploring regional approaches and legislative mechanisms, we aim to shed light on the challenges and advancements in the protection of minority rights. The findings of our research provide insights that may be valuable to both policymakers and scholars focused on the intersection of human rights, international law, and socio-political stability.

We believe that our research article aligns well with the mission of "Hasanuddin Law Review" to advance scholarly dialogue on legal issues affecting diverse regions, particularly those related to human rights and regional governance. We have adhered to the journal's guidelines for manuscript submission and confirm that this work has not been published elsewhere nor is it under consideration by any other publication.

Thank you for considering our manuscript for publication. We look forward to your feedback and hope that our research will contribute to the valuable discussions fostered by your esteemed journal.

Sincerely,

Professor Avni H. Alidemaj – First author

Professor Alban Maliqi - Corresponding author
